

Neil's Village

Hello, I am Neil.

This is my beautiful village.

My grandmother lives here with Titu uncle .

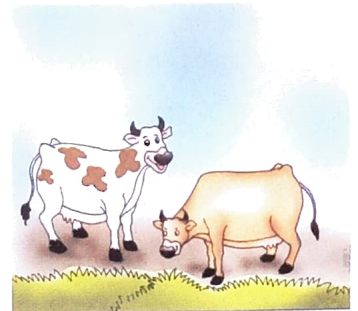

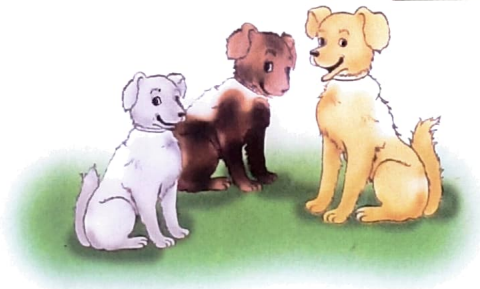

We have a farm. There are two cows

a cat

three dogs

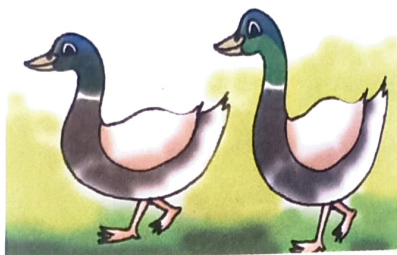

one cock

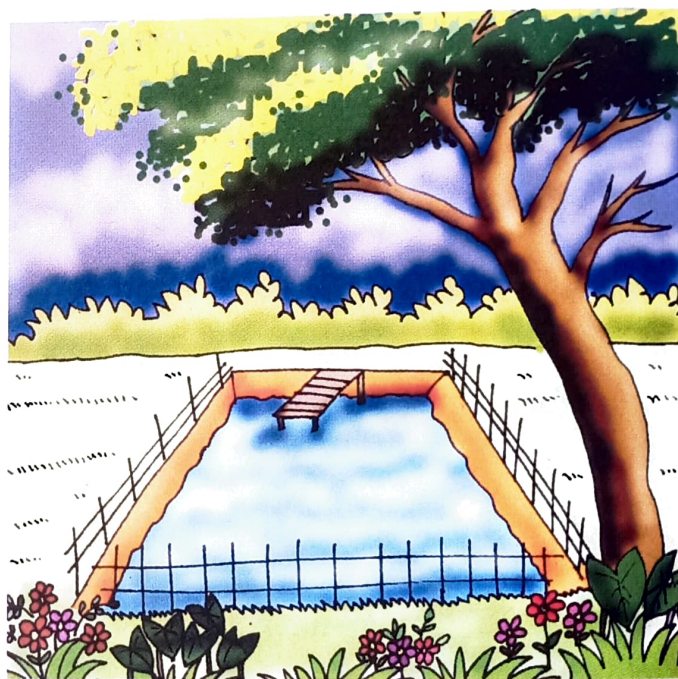

Daily Assam. Com

and two ducks

on the farm.

Titu uncle cleans the farm himself. My grandmother milks the cows herself. She loves them all. She feeds them in the morning and in the afternoon. Whenever I go there, I feed the animals myself. They drink water from the pond on the farm.

Answer these questions.

1. How many cows are there in the farm ?
2. Who cleans the farm himself ?

Let's Read

She is Leela.

He is Rupam.

He is Leela's brother.

That is her pencil.

They are Leela and Rupam's parents.

That is their home.

We are Ritu and Rumi.

Leela and Rupam are our friends.

Read and remember

I, He, She, My, His, Her, They, Their, It, We, Our are Pronouns

For the teacher only

The students are expected to learn about Pronouns. They should be given an idea about personal and possessive pronouns. The students should also be taught about reflexive pronouns and their usage in simple sentences.

Activity

1. Now replace the red coloured words with pronouns from the box and write the sentences again.

I, My, His, Her, They, Their, It, We, Our

One is done for you : Mitu is playing with a doll.

Mitu is a girl.

Ans : She is a girl.

- i) Arjun is playing cricket.
Arjun is Mitu's brother.
- ii) Our grandparents love us.
Our grandparents teach us good things.
- iii) We are Annie and Binny.
Annie and Binny are good friends.
- iv) That is a monkey.
The monkey likes to eat bananas.

Now, look at these :

My – Mine

His–His

Your–Yours

Our–Ours

Her–Hers

Their–Theirs

Now, read these sentences :

1. This is my pencil box. This pencil box is mine.
2. Those are our books. Those books are ours.
3. Is this your bag ? Is this bag yours ?
4. This is his home. This home is his.
5. This is her doll. That doll is also hers.
6. These are their cats. The dogs are theirs too.

Mine, Yours, His, Hers, Ours, Theirs, Its, are called Possessive Pronouns.

Read these sentences :

I clean my room myself.

He cleans his room himself.

She cleans her room herself.

You clean your room yourself.

You clean your room yourselves.

We clean our room ourselves.

They clean their room themselves.

We use self with my, your, him, her, it and selves with our, your, them, when we do a work on our own.

2. Now complete the following sentences.
One is done for you.

The boy is polishing his shoes himself.

a) The elephant is taking bath —.

b) The girl is cooking food —.

c) I am doing my homework —.

d) They are decorating their home —.

New words : Farm, Feed, Milks, Pond